

Deana began her career in Law at Maidstone Crown Court undertaking many roles before deciding her move into Criminal Defence. She has completed her degree in Law with Criminology (LLB Hons) and manages a caseload including the firms' high profile serious crime cases including murder, terrorism and large drug importations. Deana is heavily involved in preparing them for court all whilst concluding her Legal Practice Course (LPC).

Deana is of Colombian heritage and is bilingual which has previously assisted in cases. She is currently a scholar, becoming a Master of Law (LLM) at the University of Law.

Further to this she also manages the firm's diary, arranging the allocation of solicitors and barristers for hearings.