

Jack joined Reeves & Co in January of 2024.

He currently runs and manages the firm's fast paced Police Station Department and day-to-day conduct of the cases from initial client contact through to the conclusion of the client's matter. He is also currently completing his Police Station Representative Accreditation.

As well as this Jack maintains a small caseload including Magistrates' and Crown Court cases and is involved with the firm's marketing, and advertising planning and strategies.
